

The Top Ten Reasons To Hire A Geriatric Care Manager

10. A care manager is efficient: research about services that could take a family weeks, can be summarized in a 2 hour conference.
9. A care manager is realistic: and can put together an affordable plan of care that meets an individual's needs
8. Care management can save money: if you have to fly into town when your parents say "everything is fine" but you aren't sure, you may save the cost of that flight.
7. A care manager is knowledgeable: we know the care facilities in town and can identify which one is the right fit for a family member, based on individual circumstances.
6. A care manager facilitates: helping to bridge any generational gap, and find a mutually agreed upon best solution for the family.
5. A care manager can mediate: when family members don't agree on a course of action, having a respectful conversation with an neutral outsider can help make decisions.

4. Care managers are experienced: having helped hundreds of families since 1983, we can use that wealth of knowledge to help your family.
3. A care manager is objective: we don't carry the emotional baggage of the family and will present objective choices focused on solving problems.
2. A care manager can help: when you simply don't have the physical or emotional energy to figure out what to do when the next crisis erupts.
1. A care manager is available 24/7, so you do not always have to be.

How a Care Manager Can Help

Stowell Associates began to provide care management services in 1983. One of our experienced care managers can help an older person stay as independent and safe as possible wherever they are living, while giving you peace of mind knowing that they are getting the care they needed. Call Jill Hyatt at 414 963-2600 to arrange for an in-person meeting with one of our care managers. They are trained as nurses or social workers, have worked with hundreds of families, and can provide valuable insight and help solve many different types of problems.
